Mrs. Kennedy's concept of the book and the Report, the importance of the first and the unquestionability
of the second:

Bishop's concept of "history"
as slush and sentimentality
is also revealed: